

Spanish 1 First Semester Speaking Assessment Rubric

Nombre _____ Hora _____ Fecha _____

Comprehensibility	Vocabulary	Correctness of Expression	Risk-taking, signs of improvement
5 Story is easy to understand. It is a complete story with a beginning, middle and end.	5 Lots of details. A wide variety of vocabulary words from first semester.	5 Good pronunciation. Almost no grammar mistakes. Language flows smoothly.	5 Story is creative & told with expression. Good use of transition words & colorful comments. Entirely in Spanish.
3 Story is fairly easy to follow, but there are a few rough spots (hesitation or groping for words).	3 You used the vocabulary necessary to tell the story. The basic vocabulary is used correctly.	3 Mostly correct, but some pronunciation and grammar errors.	3 Some vocal expression and creativity. You told the story correctly with some elaboration.
1 Story is difficult to follow. Speech is very choppy.	1 Story lacks needed vocabulary or has misused words.	1 Little attempt to pronounce correctly. Significant errors in usage or grammar.	1 Monotone. You resorted to English. You only did the minimum to get by.

You will make up a story based on the series of pictures. Be sure to use the Spanish that we know for your story. It will sound simple. That's okay. This is Spanish 1. Use lots of detail and lots of vocabulary. You want to show off the Spanish you know. You will also get points for making your story creative and for telling it in an expressive way.